

N° 15.13

The Drum paper holder evokes 18th-century Neoclassicism through the use of reeding in the flourishing backplates. The visual play of the decorative lines against the smooth posts creates a sophisticated design that is suitable for a variety of traditional and early modern interiors. The spring-loaded Delrin spindle provides strength without being too heavy. This holder is also available in a single-post version. A comprehensive suite of aesthetically related bath hardware is also available, including towel rings, robe hooks, and glass towel rods, as are twelve Nanz plated and patinated finishes.
