

N° 2055

The No 2055 Georgian lever incorporates molding details which were part of the architectural vocabulary of 18th-century Neoclassicism. Beaded astragals bind the tapering reeded handle, which terminates in a shallow ogival dome, as well as the ogee profile of the face of the rose. This lever, suitable for formal interiors, can be paired with an array of different roses. It is available in antique gold, antique silver, burnished brass, pewter and antique brass as well as a wide range of other plated and patinated finishes. An oversized version is offered and can be used with traditional full-mortise locksets or manufactured for use with multi-point doors, tilt & turn windows and lift & slide doors.
