

N° 6020

The form of the N° 6020 early American drop ring pull is essentially Baroque in the compound curves and paired cusps, and gently swelling lower curve of the pendant ring. It is traditionally paired with surface mounted rim locks, but also can be used as a dummy pull. All NANZ plated and patinated finishes are available.

Width: 2-1/2" 3"