

N° 8284

The N° 8284 handle is manufactured in our Long Island factory. The Nanz factory employs lost wax shell casting, CNC machining, electroplating and the traditional hand finishing techniques of polishing, texturing, patination, and relieving. Our design team creates proprietary one of a kind designs and revives great American designs, allowing for inspiring antiques to take advantage of technological advancements. Handle and trim combinations are essentially limitless. This N° 8284 is shown in Burnished Brass finish, and all Nanz plated and patinated finishes are available.
