

N° 9572

The No 9572 shutter latch was originally made for the Dakota Apartment Building in New York City in the late 19th century. The demilune backplates and pivoting hasp have chamfered edges. All NANZ plated and patinated finishes are available.

Height: 1-7/8"

Width: 3"

Projection: 1/2"