THE SUZANNE TUCKER HOME HARDWARE COLLECTION

Suzanne Tucker and The Nanz Company have enjoyed a long standing designer/manufacturer relationship, collaborating on beautiful projects and bringing unique ideas to life. This creative partnership led to the Suzanne Tucker Home for Nanz collections presented here. Both Suzanne and Nanz have a shared appreciation and love for quality craftsmanship, thoughtful design, and elegant execution – it was on this foundation that the team created a collection of "house jewelry" as Suzanne references her approach to luxurious hardware. This premiere collection consists of six "suites" – knobs, levers, hinges, pulls, and cabinetry hardware – inspired by various architectural styles and West Coast locations.

Suzanne Tucker, the Principal Designer and Co-Founder of San Francisco design firm Tucker & Marks, strongly believes that by surrounding ourselves with the authenticity of thoughtful design and timeless architecture, we are able to enrich and enhance the quality of our lives. She is recognized as one of the country's leading interior designers, known for her personal approach and enduring style, attention to detail and her passion for architecture and the decorative arts. Nanz's mission is to design and manufacture fine custom hardware for beautiful homes throughout the world. The Nanz Company specializes in not only the fabrication of the best handles, hinges, locks, and fittings but also the specification and organization of these exclusive products.

The suites are featured in the following pages. All pieces can be provided in any of Nanz's 30+ finishes, and a variety of precious stones are available. Samples are on display in all Nanz Showrooms.
